Names are to be listed by families alphabetically. Members of each family, in the following order: First, head; second, wife; then children, whether sons or daughters, in order of their ages; and lastly all other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group.

1. A family is composed of the following members:

(a) Both parents and their unmarried children, if any, living with them. In the case of plural wives, the oldest with her unmarried children is to be listed first; the others, in order of their ages.

(b) Either parent and the unmarried children if the other is dead or permanently residing elsewhere.

(c) A single person over 18 years of age, not living with any relatives.

(c) A single person over 18 years of age, not living with an

2. For each person the following information is to be furnished:

(a) Census numbers, both present and last.

(b) Name, Indian and English, if any. First the surname, then the given. Care is to be exercised in their spelling and ditto marks are to be used when the surname is the same as that of the person in the preceding line.

(c) Allotment, annuity, and identification numbers. Write "Al" for allotment, "An" for annuity, and "Id" for identification, before the appropriate number or numbers.

(d) Date of birth by month, day, and year.

(e) Degree of blood. If full blood use "F," if mixed, "M."

(7) Marital condition. "S" for a single or unmarried person of whatever age, "M" for married, and "W" for widowed of either sex.

(g) Relation to head of family. The head, whether husband or wife or unmarried person of either sex, is to be designated by the word, "head." For the other members of the family use wife, son, daughter, etc., according to the peculiar relationship which the person bears to the head.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

Names are to be listed by families alphabetically. Members of each family, in the following order: First, head; second, wife; then children, whether sons or daughters, in order of their ages; and lastly, all other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group.

1. A family is composed of the following members:
(a) Both parents and their unmarried children, if any, living with them. In the case of plural wives, the oldest with her unmarried children is to be listed first; the others, in order of their ages.

(b) Either parent and the unmarried children, if the other is dead or permanently residing elsewhere.

(c) A single person, over 18 years of age, not living with any relatives.

For each person the following information is to be furnished:

(a) Census number, both present and last.

(b) Name, Indian and English, if any. First the surname, then the given. Care is to be exercised in their spelling and ditto marks are to be used when the surname is the same as that of the person in the preceding line.

(c) Allotment, annuity, and identification numbers. Write "Al" for allotment, "An" for annuity, and "Id" for identification, before the appropriate number or numbers.

(d) Date of birth by month, day, and year.

(e) Degree of blood. If full blood use "F," if mixed, "M."

(f) Marital condition. "S" for a single or unmarried person of whatever age, "M" for married, and "Wd" for widowed of either sex.

(g) Relation to head of family. The head, whether husband or wife or unmarried person of either sex, is to be designated by the word, "head." For the other members of the family use wife, son, daughter, etc., according to the peculiar relationship which the person bears to the head.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

Names are to be listed by families alphabetically. Members of each family, in the following order: First, head; second, wife; then children, whether sons or daughters, in order of their ages; and lastly, all other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group.

1. A family is composed of the following members:

- Both parents and their unmarried children, if any, living with them. In the case of plural wives, the oldest wife and her unmarried children is to be listed first; the others, in order of their ages.
- Either parent and the unmarried children, if the other is dead or permanently residing elsewhere.
- A single person over 18 years of age, not living with any relatives.

2. For each person the following information is to be furnished:

- Census numbers, both present and last.
- Name, Indian and English, if any. First the surname, then the given. Care is to be exercised in their spelling and diacritical marks are to be used when the surname is the same as that of the person in the preceding line.
- Marital condition, annuity, and identification numbers. Write "Al" for allotment, "An" for annuity, and "Id" for identification, before the appropriate number or numbers.
- Date of birth by month, day, and year.
- Degree of blood. If full blood use "F," if mixed, "M."
- Marital condition. "S" for a single or unmarried person of whatever age, "M" for married, and "Wd" for widowed of either sex.
- Relation to head of family. The head, whether husband or wife or unmarried person of either sex, is to be designated by the word, "head." For the other members of the family use wife, son, daughter, etc., according to the peculiar relationship which the person bears to the head.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

Names are to be listed by families alphabetically. Members of each family, in the following order: First, head; second, wife; then children, whether sons or daughters, in order of their ages; and lastly, all other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group.

1. A family is composed of the following members:

(a) Both parents and their unmarried children, if any, living with them. In the case of plural wives, the oldest with her unmarried children is to be listed first; the others, in order of their ages.

(b) Either parent and the unmarried children, if the other is dead or permanently residing elsewhere.

(c) A single person over 18 years of age, not living with any relatives.

For each person the following information is to be furnished:

(a) Census number, both present and last.

(b) Name, Indian and English, if any. First the surname, then the given name. Care is to be exercised in their spelling and ditto marks are to be used when the surname is the same as that of the person in the preceding line.

(c) Sex, and identification number. Write "M" for male, "F" for female, "An" for allotment, "An" for annuity, and "Id" for identification, before the appropriate number or numbers.

(d) Date of birth by month, day, and year.

(e) Degree of blood. If full blood use "F", if mixed, "M".

(f) Marital condition. "S" for a single or unmarried person of whatever age; "M" for married, and "Wd" for widowed of either sex.

(g) Relation to head of family. The head, whether husband or wife or unmarried person of either sex, is to be designated by the word, "head." For the other members of the family use wife, son, daughter, etc., according to the peculiar relationship which the person bears to the head.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION

Names are to be listed by families alphabetically. Members of each family, in the following order: First, head; second, wife; then children, whether sons or daughters, in order of their ages; and last, all other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group.

1. A family is composed of the following members: (a) Both parents and their unmarried children, if any, living with them. In the case of plural wives, the oldest with her unmarried children is to be listed first; the others, in order of their ages. (b) Either parent and the unmarried children, if the other is dead or permanently residing elsewhere. (c) A single person over 18 years of age, not living with any relatives.

2. For each person the following information is to be furnished: (1) Census numbers, both present and last. (2) Name, Indian and English, if any. First the surname, then the given. Care is to be exercised in their spelling and ditto marks are to be used when the surname is the same as that of the person in the preceding line. (3) Community, and identification numbers. Write "Al" for allotment, "An" for annuity, and "Id" for identification, before the appropriate number or numbers. (4) Date of birth by month, day, and year. (5) Degree of blood. If full blood use "F," mixed, "M." (6) Marital condition. "S" for a single or unmarried person of whatever age, "M" for married, and "Wd" for widowed of either sex. (7) Relation to head of family. The head, whether husband or wife or unmarried person of either sex, is to be designated by the word, "head." For the other members of the family use wife, son, daughter, etc., according to the peculiar relationship which the person bears to the head.

Names are to be listed by families alphabetically. In the case of families with more than one dwelling, list the members of each dwelling in the following order: first, head; second, wife; third, children, in order of their ages; last, other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group. In the case of families with more than one dwelling, list the members of each dwelling in the following order: first, head; second, wife; third, children, in order of their ages; last, other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group. In the case of families with more than one dwelling, list the members of each dwelling in the following order: first, head; second, wife; third, children, in order of their ages; last, other relatives and persons living with them, who do not constitute another family group.

On each person the following information is to be furnished:

(1) Name, Indian and English, if any. First the surname, then the given. Case is to be as exercised in their surnames, and give names as to be used when the surname is the same. (2) Date of birth, by month, day, and year. (3) Degree of blood. If full blood use "F"; if mixed, "M." (4) Marital condition. "S" for a single or unmarried person of whatever age; "M" for married; "W" for widowed; "D" for divorced; "H" for head of family. (5) Relation to head of family. The head, whether husband or wife or unmarried person, is to be designated by the word, "head." For the other members of the family, use "son," "daughter," etc., according to the peculiar relationship which the person bears to the head.
